

Taizé Prayer on the Wednesday after the First Sunday after Trinity

10 June 2026

Welcome and Opening Reflection

Opening Prayer

O God,
the strength of all those who put their trust in you,
mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace,
that in the keeping of your commandments
we may please you both in will and deed;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Chant I: With you O Lord

With you, O Lord, is life in all its full - ness, and in your light we shall see true light. With you, O Lord, is life in all its full - ness, and in your light we shall see true light.

Psalm: 50. 7-15

Hear, O my people, and I will speak:

'I will testify against you, O Israel; for I am God, your God.

'I will not reprove you for your sacrifices, for your burnt offerings are always before me.

'I will take no bull out of your house, nor he-goat out of your folds,

'For all the beasts of the forest are mine, the cattle upon a thousand hills.

'I know every bird of the mountains and the insect of the field is mine.

'If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the whole world is mine and all that fills it.

'Do you think I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?

'Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving and fulfil your vows to God Most High.

'Call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you and you shall honour me.'

Chant 2: Christe Salvator

(Christ the Saviour, Son of the Father, grant us peace.)

Reading Matthew 18b-26 (May be read in another language)

Suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, 'My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.' And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, for she said to herself, 'If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.' Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, 'Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.' And instantly the woman was made well. When Jesus came to the leader's house and saw the flute-players and the crowd making a commotion, he said, 'Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.' And they laughed at him. But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. And the report of this spread throughout that district.

thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power, and the glory
for ever and ever.
Amen.

that we may find true life

The peace of God,
which passes all understanding,

Tower Ward in Tudor Times

Author GJ Williams writes Tudor era mysteries with one of our famous residents as her detective – Dr John Dee. During the talk, she will walk us through Tower Ward as he would have seen it, the society he navigated and the ever present shadow of the Tower of London. Please join us at 5.30pm on Thursday 25 June.

Parish Giving Scheme

All Hallows by the Tower has joined the Parish Giving Scheme. PGS allows you to set up planned giving on a monthly, quarterly or annual Direct Debit. This helps us to plan our budget accordingly, as the gifts and 25% Gift Aid are processed regularly - turning every pound you give into Christian service in this community. You can even choose the option to increase your gift annually in line with inflation (you would be contacted in advance to confirm you are happy with the increase). You give securely, and you can choose to give anonymously, if you prefer.

The course will be on Saturday 12 September, 10am-5pm. Please let Michael in the parish Office know if you'd like more details.

Taizé at All Hallows

Taizé is a short service using prayer, chants and silence. It is easy to learn, simple and very beautiful. This form of worship takes its name from a town in southern Burgundy, France, which is the home of an international ecumenical Christian community of over a hundred brothers. Regular times of prayer, chants and silence are at the heart of daily life in Taizé, and thousands from many countries have travelled there to experience this form of prayer and reflection. The profound simplicity and beauty of the worship is now used in services around the world, inspired by the ideals of justice and reconciliation that unite the community and those who visit it.

Our church services are recorded and streamed on our website in an official capacity. You may be filmed during the service, and pictures of you may be transmitted online and as mobile content. By sitting in the main body of the church you consent to such filming and to the transmission of any official broadcast on our livestream. If you do not wish to be filmed please speak to one of the welcome team who will direct you to an unfilmed area in the north aisle. We also ask that in order to respect other people at prayer, we ask that you do not film, record or take photographs in an unofficial capacity during services.
